

GIRANDOLE

Meaning: A girandole is an ornamental light fixture, often a wall-mounted candle holder or chandelier, typically featuring multiple branches for candles or lights.

1. The antique shop was filled with exquisite chandeliers, but the most striking piece was the ornate girandole that hung from the ceiling.
2. She admired the intricate design of the girandole, which reflected the soft candlelight beautifully.
3. During the gala, the dining room was elegantly decorated with a massive girandole adorned with crystals.
4. The artist painted a stunning still life featuring a girandole surrounded by vibrant flowers and fruits.
5. In the museum, the girandole on display showcased the craftsmanship of the 18th century, capturing the attention of every visitor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/girandole>