

GIRDER

Meaning: A girder is a large, horizontal beam used in construction to support weight and provide structural stability.

1. The construction crew carefully positioned the steel girder to support the new bridge.
2. Engineers designed the building with a series of girders to ensure stability during high winds.
3. As the crane lifted the massive girder into place, onlookers marveled at the engineering feat.
4. The old factory's roof had to be reinforced with additional girders to prevent collapse.
5. During the renovation, they discovered that the main girder had rusted and needed replacement.
6. The construction workers carefully positioned the steel girder to ensure the stability of the bridge.
7. Architects often specify the type of girder to be used based on the required load-bearing capacity.
8. After the storm, the damaged girder was deemed unsafe and needed to be replaced immediately.
9. Innovative designs have led to the use of lightweight materials in modern girder construction.
10. The old factory was supported by massive concrete girders that had withstood the test of time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/girder>