

GLABROUS

Meaning: Glabrous refers to a surface that is smooth and hairless.

1. The glabrous surface of the leaf allowed for an easier identification of its unique features.
2. In her botanical studies, she focused on plants with glabrous stems to understand their water retention capabilities.
3. The glabrous skin of the fruit indicated that it was ripe and ready for harvest.
4. He admired the glabrous texture of the sculpture, which reflected the artist's meticulous craftsmanship.
5. Many species of insects prefer glabrous plants as they are less likely to harbor pests and diseases.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glabrous>