

GLAC

Meaning: GLAC (adjective): relating to or characteristic of glaciers or ice, particularly in the context of glacial environments or processes.

1. The researchers discovered a rare species of algae thriving in the glacial meltwater.
2. As the climate warms, many scientists are studying how glacial retreat affects local ecosystems.
3. The glacial landscape was breathtaking, with towering ice formations glistening in the sunlight.
4. She felt a deep sense of awe standing at the edge of the massive glacial crevasse.
5. The expedition team prepared to scale the steep glacial ice in search of ancient fossils.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glac>