

GLADDEN

Meaning: To gladden means to make someone feel joy or happiness.

1. The surprise party was designed to gladden her heart after a tough week.
2. Seeing the children play in the park always seems to gladden his spirits.
3. The kind words from her friend were enough to gladden her mood significantly.
4. He hoped that the new puppy would gladden his family's lives with joy and laughter.
5. The beautiful sunset gladdened everyone who paused to take in the view.
6. Her smile was enough to gladden the hearts of everyone in the room.
7. The unexpected news of the promotion did nothing but gladden his spirits.
8. Seeing the children play in the park always seems to gladden my mood.
9. The kind words from her friend gladdened her during a tough time.
10. A beautiful sunset can gladden even the weariest of travelers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gladden>