

GLADIATOR

Meaning: A gladiator is a trained fighter in ancient Rome who engaged in armed combat for public entertainment, often in arenas.

1. The gladiator stepped into the arena, his armor glinting in the sunlight.
2. In ancient Rome, a gladiator's life was often one of brutal combat and fierce competition.
3. The film portrayed a brave gladiator who defied the odds to reclaim his freedom.
4. Crowds erupted in cheers as the gladiator delivered a decisive blow to his opponent.
5. Every gladiator knew that their skills in battle could mean the difference between life and death.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gladiator>