

GLADIATORISM

Meaning: Gladiatorism refers to the promotion or glorification of violent competition, often in entertainment or sports, that raises ethical concerns about morality and the nature of competition.

1. Gladiatorism has often been criticized for its glorification of violence in entertainment.
2. The rise of gladiatorism in modern sports raises ethical questions about competition and morality.
3. Many argue that gladiatorism reflects a primal instinct in humans to seek dominance through physical prowess.
4. The fascination with gladiatorism can be seen in the popularity of reality shows that pit contestants against each other.
5. In historical contexts, gladiatorism symbolized the struggle for power and survival in ancient societies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gladiatorism>