

GLADIATORY

Meaning: GLADIATORY: relating to or characteristic of gladiators or the contests in which they engage, often involving combat and competition for survival.

1. The gladiatory contests of ancient Rome showcased the bravery and skill of its fighters.
2. In the novel, the protagonist finds himself drawn into a gladiatory arena where survival is paramount.
3. The film vividly depicts the gladiatory lifestyle, highlighting both the glory and the brutality of the games.
4. Historians often debate the social implications of gladiatory combat in shaping Roman culture.
5. Her passion for history led her to study the gladiatory traditions that defined the empire's entertainment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gladiatory>