

GLANDULIFEROUS

Meaning: Glanduliferous refers to having or producing glands, often related to structures that secrete substances important for functions such as reproduction or other biological processes.

1. The glanduliferous structures of the plant are essential for its reproductive success.
2. In her research, she focused on the glanduliferous traits of various amphibian species.
3. The study revealed that glanduliferous tissues play a crucial role in hormone secretion.
4. During the dissection, the glanduliferous aspects of the specimen were particularly intriguing.
5. Understanding the function of glanduliferous organs can provide insights into evolutionary biology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glanduliferous>