

GLASS-FACED

Meaning: Glass-faced refers to a building or structure characterized by an exterior surface made predominantly of glass, allowing for visibility and reflection.

1. The modern skyscraper featured a stunning glass-faced exterior that reflected the city skyline.
2. Her office was located in a glass-faced building that provided panoramic views of the landscape.
3. The architect envisioned a glass-faced home that would blend seamlessly with the surrounding nature.
4. As the sun set, the glass-faced structure glowed warmly, creating a striking contrast against the darkening sky.
5. Visitors were captivated by the glass-faced museum, which allowed them to feel connected to the vibrant city outside.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glass-faced>