

GLASSEN

Meaning: To apply a glossy or transparent coating to an object or surface, enhancing its appearance or clarity.

1. The artist chose to glassen the intricate details of the sculpture to enhance its visual appeal.
2. She decided to glassen the windows of her new café to create a bright and inviting atmosphere.
3. His innovative design concept aimed to glassen the building's façade, allowing natural light to flood the interior.
4. They planned to glassen the exterior walls with a unique treatment that would reflect the surrounding landscape.
5. The architect was excited to glassen the entryway, adding a touch of modern elegance to the historic structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glassen>