GLASSINESS

Meaning: Glassiness refers to a shiny, smooth, or reflective quality that can indicate emotional distress or a surface's ability to reflect images clearly.

1. The glassiness of her eyes hinted at the tears she was trying to hold back.
2. In the morning light, the lake had a glassiness that reflected the surrounding trees perfectly.
3. His expression was marked by a glassiness that suggested he was lost in thought.
4. The glassiness of the sculpture gave it an ethereal quality, as if it were part of a dream.
5. After hours of staring at the screen, I felt a glassiness settle over my vision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glassiness