

GLAUCOMETER

Meaning: A glaucometer is a medical instrument used to measure intraocular pressure in the eye, aiding in the diagnosis of glaucoma.

1. The doctor used a glaucometer to measure the patient's intraocular pressure.
2. After my eye exam, the technician explained how the glaucometer works.
3. Regular check-ups with a glaucometer can help detect glaucoma early.
4. I was relieved to learn that my glaucometer readings were within the normal range.
5. Advancements in technology have improved the accuracy of modern glaucometers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glaucometer>