

GLAVER

Meaning: Glaver (verb): To express or demonstrate skillful artistry or eloquence, particularly in the manipulation of visual elements or persuasive speech.

1. The artist's glaver was evident in the way he captured light and shadow in his paintings.
2. During the debate, she tended to glaver, making it difficult for her opponents to counter her points effectively.
3. His tendency to glaver often led to misunderstandings among his friends and colleagues.
4. In the dense forest, the glaver of the branches created a mesmerizing pattern of light on the ground.
5. As the children played, their laughter would glaver through the air, bringing joy to everyone nearby.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glaver>