

GLEG

Meaning: GLEG (adjective): characterized by briskness or liveliness; sharp and quick in movement or response.

1. The gleg wind whipped through the trees, sending leaves swirling into the air.
2. He had a gleg response to the question, showcasing his quick wit.
3. After a gleg inspection of the car, she realized it needed more repairs than she thought.
4. The chef was known for his gleg movements in the kitchen, making preparation look effortless.
5. Her gleg laughter filled the room, instantly brightening the mood of everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gleg>