

GLEN

Meaning: A glen is a narrow valley, typically one that is lush and often surrounded by hills or mountains.

1. The hikers paused to admire the serene beauty of the glen nestled between the mountains.
2. As the sun set, the glen was bathed in a warm golden light, casting long shadows across the grass.
3. Wildflowers bloomed in abundance within the glen, attracting bees and butterflies alike.
4. A small stream wound its way through the glen, creating a soothing soundtrack of flowing water.
5. Local legends spoke of fairies that danced in the glen under the light of the full moon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glen>