

GLOOM

Meaning: Gloom refers to a state of darkness or partial darkness, often associated with a feeling of sadness or melancholy.

1. The sudden gloom in the room was palpable as the news was delivered.
2. After days of rain, the persistent gloom outside matched her somber mood.
3. He tried to lift the gloom with jokes, but the atmosphere remained heavy.
4. As autumn approached, the early sunset cast a gloom over the landscape.
5. Despite the gloom of the situation, she remained hopeful for a brighter future.
6. The sudden rain brought a sense of gloom over the picnic that had been so eagerly anticipated.
7. After hearing the disheartening news, a thick gloom settled over the entire room.
8. As the sun began to set, the sky transformed, casting a gloom that seemed to wrap the village in a shroud of mystery.
9. Despite her efforts to stay cheerful, a lingering gloom hung around her since the departure of her closest friend.
10. The novel's somber themes were reflected in the gloom that permeated the protagonist's life.
11. The persistent gloom of the overcast sky matched her somber mood.
12. After the storm passed, a heavy gloom settled over the once vibrant town.
13. He felt an overwhelming gloom envelop him as he walked through the empty halls.
14. Despite the gloom outside, the warmth of their laughter filled the room with light.
15. The novel's themes of loss and regret cast a long gloom over its characters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gloom>