

GLOOMINESS

Meaning: GLOOMINESS: a state or quality of being dark, dreary, or melancholic, often creating a feeling of sadness or despondency.

1. The gloominess of the winter sky seemed to seep into her very soul.
2. Despite the charm of the old town, an air of gloominess hung heavy in the streets.
3. He could sense the gloominess in her voice, a reflection of her troubled thoughts.
4. The gloominess of the abandoned house sent chills down his spine.
5. Even in the midst of a celebration, a lingering gloominess settled over the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gloominess>