

GLORIOLE

Meaning: Gloriole: a halo or radiant light surrounding a person or object, often symbolizing holiness or divinity.

1. The sun broke through the clouds, casting a glorious glare that formed a delicate gloriole around the mountaintop.
2. In the painting, the artist captured a gloriole shimmering around the saint, symbolizing her divine presence.
3. As the choir sang, a gloriole of light seemed to envelop the singers, adding a mystical quality to the performance.
4. Witnessing the sunrise from the cliff, I felt as if the landscape was bathed in a gloriole, highlighting its breathtaking beauty.
5. The old church was adorned with stained glass that created a gloriole of colors when the sunlight streamed through.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gloriole>