

GLOWER

Meaning: To glower is to stare angrily or sullenly at someone or something.

1. The cat would glower at anyone who dared to approach its food bowl.
2. Despite his attempts to smile, she could see him glower at the unfair decision.
3. The teacher would often glower at the students who chatted during her lectures.
4. As the storm rolled in, the sky seemed to glower menacingly above the town.
5. She could feel her parents glower at her from across the room when she mentioned her plans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glower>