

GLOZER

Meaning: GLOZER (noun): A person who glowers; someone who expresses displeasure or anger through a sullen or scowling facial expression.

1. The glower on his face revealed his displeasure with the situation.
2. She couldn't help but glower at the rude comments made during the meeting.
3. Despite his attempts to remain calm, his glower betrayed his irritation.
4. The teacher's glower silenced the classroom immediately.
5. With a fierce glower, he made it clear that he would not tolerate any more disruptions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glozer>