

GLUNCH

Meaning: Glunch (verb): To make a sullen or displeased facial expression, often indicating annoyance or disapproval.

1. She gave me a glunch when I arrived late to the meeting.
2. His glunch was unmistakable as he overheard the gossip about him.
3. After hearing the news, her glunch told me she was far from pleased.
4. The teacher shot a glunch at the students who were chatting during the lecture.
5. I could sense a glunch brewing between the two friends after their argument.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glunch>