

GLUTINATING

Meaning: Glutinating refers to the process of thickening or binding a mixture, often with a sauce or similar substance, to enhance flavor or texture.

1. The chef was glutinating the mixture with a thick layer of sauce to enhance the flavor.
2. After hours of cooking, the stew was glutinating into a rich, hearty consistency that filled the kitchen with aroma.
3. As the dough rested, it began glutinating, becoming more elastic and easier to shape.
4. The artist's technique involved glutinating layers of paint to create depth and texture in the artwork.
5. In the humid climate, the rice was glutinating, making it stickier and more challenging to serve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glutinating>