

GLUTINATION

Meaning: Glutination is the process of combining two or more elements, such as words or chemical compounds, into a single entity.

1. Glutination occurs when two or more words are combined to form a single term in linguistic evolution.
2. The scientist explained that glutination can lead to the creation of complex compounds in chemistry.
3. During the experiment, the glutination of the substances resulted in a surprisingly stable mixture.
4. In certain dialects, glutination is a common feature that reflects the unique phonetic characteristics of that language.
5. The researcher focused on the glutination process to understand how it affects protein synthesis.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glutination>