

GLYCERIC

Meaning: Glyceric refers to substances related to or derived from glyceric acid, particularly in biochemical processes and metabolic pathways.

1. Glyceric acid is an important compound in various biochemical processes.
2. The study focused on the metabolic pathways involving glyceric compounds.
3. Researchers synthesized glyceric derivatives for potential therapeutic applications.
4. Glyceric properties are crucial in the formulation of certain pharmaceuticals.
5. The presence of glyceric elements can influence the stability of emulsions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glyceric>