

GLYCERYL

Meaning: Glyceryl refers to a chemical compound derived from glycerol, often used in the form of esters in cosmetics and food products for its emulsifying and moisturizing properties.

1. Glyceryl esters are commonly used in the cosmetic industry for their moisturizing properties.
2. The formulation included glyceryl monostearate as an emulsifier to improve texture.
3. In the laboratory, glyceryl triacetate was synthesized as a potential plasticizer.
4. Glyceryl is often derived from natural sources such as vegetable oils.
5. Many pharmaceutical preparations utilize glyceryl to enhance drug absorption.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glyceryl>