

GLYPH

Meaning: A glyph is a symbolic figure or character used in writing, particularly one that conveys meaning or represents a specific element in a typeface.

1. The ancient manuscript was adorned with intricate glyphs that told stories of a long-lost civilization.
2. In modern typography, a glyph represents a specific character or symbol in a typeface.
3. Archaeologists uncovered a stone tablet covered in hieroglyphs, revealing secrets of the past.
4. The graphic designer chose a unique glyph to represent the brand's identity in its logo.
5. Understanding the meaning behind each glyph can unlock new insights into historical texts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/glyph>