

GNAT

Meaning: Gnat: a small, flying insect that often resembles a mosquito and is known for its annoying buzzing and biting behavior.

1. The warm summer evening was filled with the buzzing of gnats, which danced in the fading light.
2. Despite its small size, the gnat's bite left a surprisingly itchy mark on my arm.
3. To avoid the swarms of gnats at dusk, we decided to move our picnic to a shaded area.
4. The pond was teeming with life, but the gnats were particularly bothersome as we tried to relax.
5. As the sun set, the gnats emerged in droves, reminding us of the fleeting nature of summer nights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gnat>