

GNAW

Meaning: To gnaw means to bite or chew persistently, often causing gradual wear or a feeling of distress.

1. The dog began to gnaw on the old bone it had found in the backyard.
2. Her anxiety seemed to gnaw at her insides as she waited for the news.
3. As the months passed, doubt started to gnaw away at his confidence.
4. The persistent sound of mice gnawing on the wood made it hard to sleep.
5. He watched the rabbit gnaw through the fresh vegetables in the garden.
6. The relentless mice began to gnaw at the edges of the old wooden table.
7. As the storm raged outside, doubts began to gnaw at her mind.
8. The dog was eager to gnaw on the bone left for him.
9. His conscience started to gnaw at him after he lied to his friend.
10. She could hear the sound of something gnawing in the dark corners of the attic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gnaw>