

GNOMONIST

Meaning: A gnomonist is a person who studies or practices the measurement of time and angles using shadows, particularly in the context of sundials.

1. The gnomonist carefully calculated the length of shadows to determine the time of day.
2. In ancient Greece, a gnomonist was highly regarded for their skill in sundial construction.
3. As a gnomonist, she enjoyed studying the geometry of shadows cast by various objects.
4. The art of being a gnomonist requires not only precision but also an understanding of celestial movements.
5. His fascination with shadow play led him to become a renowned gnomonist in his community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gnomonist>