

GODSIB

Meaning: Godsib: A person who serves as a spiritual or ceremonial guardian, often a godparent, particularly in the context of a wedding or a child's upbringing.

1. The godsib of the bride was honored with a special toast at the wedding reception.
2. In many cultures, the role of a godsib is considered vital in the upbringing of a child.
3. She chose her closest friend to be the godsib of her newborn, hoping to strengthen their bond.
4. Traditionally, a godsib is expected to provide guidance and support throughout a person's life.
5. The godsib ceremony included a heartfelt blessing for the family and their future endeavors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/godsib>