

GOFFER

Meaning: Goffer (verb): to create a textured or patterned effect on a surface, especially by shaping or pleating material.

1. The artist decided to goffer the edges of the paper to give it a more textured appearance.
2. During the fashion show, the designer used a goffer technique to create unique pleats in the fabric.
3. To enhance the presentation, she chose to goffer the invitations with a decorative touch.
4. He learned how to goffer the foil wrap for his custom gift boxes, making them stand out.
5. The goffered surface of the sculpture added depth and intrigue to the overall design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/goffer>