GOGGLED

Meaning: GOGGLED (verb): stared with wide-open eyes in amazement or astonishment.

1. She goggled at the incredible view from the mountaintop.
2. The child goggled in astonishment as the magician pulled a rabbit from the hat.
3. He goggled at the outrageous price of the luxury watch in the display case.
4. When she heard the news, she goggled in disbelief, unable to find words.
5. They goggled at the giant dinosaur skeleton in the museum, marveling at its size.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/goggled