

GOOD-HUMORED

Meaning: Good-humored: characterized by a cheerful and lighthearted disposition, often contributing to a pleasant atmosphere.

1. She approached the situation with a good-humored laugh, easing the tension in the room.
2. His good-humored nature made him the perfect host for the party, keeping everyone entertained.
3. Even during stressful times, she maintained a good-humored attitude that uplifted her colleagues.
4. The good-humored banter between the friends was a reminder of their strong bond.
5. Despite the challenges they faced, their good-humored exchanges never failed to bring a smile to their faces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/good-humored>