

GORGONIZE

Meaning: To gorgonize means to petrify or paralyze someone with fear or awe, often as if by a supernatural or mesmerizing power.

1. The ancient myth spoke of a power that could gorgonize anyone who dared to gaze upon her.
2. In the midst of the battle, he felt a strange ability to gorgonize his opponents, freezing them in fear.
3. The artist captured the essence of the legend, portraying her in a way that seemed to gorgonize the onlookers.
4. To gorgonize his rivals, he developed a strategy that left them paralyzed with doubt and uncertainty.
5. In a moment of sheer confidence, she managed to gorgonize the crowd with a single, piercing stare.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gorgonize>