

GOSSIPER

Meaning: A gossip is a person who spreads rumors or shares private information about others, often in a casual or indiscreet manner.

1. The gossip at the office always seemed to know everyone's secrets.
2. She was labeled a gossip after revealing private details about their relationship.
3. Being a gossip often alienates friends who value their privacy.
4. He couldn't help but roll his eyes when the gossip started sharing rumors.
5. In a small town, the gossip's words could make or break reputations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gossip>