

GOURD

Meaning: A gourd is a hard-shelled fruit of plants in the Cucurbitaceae family, often used for decoration or practical purposes after being dried and hollowed out.

1. The artist crafted a beautiful lantern from a hollowed-out gourd.
2. During the autumn festival, the market was filled with colorful gourds of all shapes and sizes.
3. She decided to decorate her home with a variety of gourds for the harvest season.
4. The children enjoyed painting their own unique designs on small gourds.
5. In some cultures, gourds are used as musical instruments and storage containers.
6. The artist crafted a beautiful centerpiece using a variety of colorful gourds.
7. During autumn, many people decorate their homes with pumpkins and other gourds.
8. In some cultures, gourds are used as traditional musical instruments.
9. The farmer harvested a diverse selection of gourds, each with its own unique shape and color.
10. She learned to make soup from the gourd she grew in her garden.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gourd>