

GOURDWORM

Meaning: GOURDWORM: A type of larval pest that burrows into and damages gourds and similar plants.

1. The gourdworm has a peculiar ability to burrow through various types of gourds, leaving behind small tunnels.
2. Farmers often struggle with gourdworm infestations, as they can significantly damage crops.
3. Some gardeners use organic methods to deter gourdworms from ruining their decorative gourds.
4. In her research, she discovered that gourdworms thrive in warm, humid conditions during the summer months.
5. The vibrant colors of the gourdworm's body make it a fascinating subject for entomology studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gourdworm>