

GOWK

Meaning: GOWK (noun): A foolish or silly person.

1. The old man called the foolish young boy a gowk for his silly antics.
2. During the debate, she realized he was just a gowk trying to impress everyone with his outrageous claims.
3. As a gowk, he often stumbled into embarrassing situations without even realizing it.
4. The villagers laughed at the gowk who wandered into town with mismatched shoes.
5. In the folklore, the gowk was often depicted as a character who inadvertently brought about change through his blunders.
6. The old man called his neighbor a gowk for wandering aimlessly in the field.
7. She felt like a gowk for believing his tall tales without question.
8. During the game, he made a gowk of himself by tripping over his own feet.
9. It's unwise to act like a gowk when making important decisions.
10. Her friends teased her for being a gowk, always falling for the same tricks.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gowk>