

GOWL

Meaning: Gowl (verb): to cry out or shout loudly, often in anger or disbelief.

1. The old man would often gowl at the children playing too close to his garden.
2. When she heard the news, it seemed she couldn't help but gowl in disbelief.
3. The dog let out a loud gowl that echoed through the quiet night.
4. His tendency to gowl whenever he was frustrated made him quite unpopular among his friends.
5. In the heat of the moment, she began to gowl, expressing her frustration with the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gowl>