

GRABBER

Meaning: Grabber (noun): something that captures attention or interest, often in a compelling or striking manner.

1. The new marketing campaign featured a catchy song that was a real grabber for younger audiences.
2. During the meeting, his use of vivid imagery proved to be a powerful grabber that captured everyone's attention.
3. The book's intriguing cover design served as an effective grabber, enticing readers to pick it up.
4. At the concert, the lead singer's energetic performance was such a grabber that the crowd couldn't help but dance along.
5. Her passionate speech was a grabber that inspired many in the audience to take action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grabber>