

GRADE

Meaning: GRADE (noun): A score or evaluation assigned to a student's work or performance, typically reflecting their level of achievement in a specific subject or assignment.

1. The teacher asked the students to turn in their assignments before the end of the grading period.
2. After weeks of hard work, she was thrilled to receive a high grade on her final project.
3. He believed that effort was more important than the grade itself in the learning process.
4. The city has initiated a program to improve the grade of its public schools through increased funding.
5. She felt a sense of accomplishment when she finally achieved the grade she had worked so hard for.
6. The teacher announced that she would be grading the exams over the weekend.
7. It's important to maintain a good grade point average for college applications.
8. He received a high grade in mathematics, which made his parents proud.
9. After the renovations, the building was given a new grade of safety certification.
10. She decided to grade her essays based on creativity and originality rather than just content.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grade>