

GRADING

Meaning: Grading refers to the process of assessing and assigning scores or evaluations to student work or performance.

1. Grading papers can be a tedious but necessary part of a teacher's job.
2. The grading system in our school ensures that every student receives fair and transparent evaluations.
3. She spent the entire weekend grading assignments to provide timely feedback to her students.
4. The grading criteria were clearly outlined in the syllabus to avoid any confusion.
5. After grading the exams, the professor realized he needed to adjust the scoring scale to better reflect student performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grading>