

GRADUAL

Meaning: Gradual refers to a process that occurs slowly or in small steps over time.

1. The gradual change in temperature signaled the arrival of spring.
2. She noticed a gradual improvement in her fitness levels after several weeks of training.
3. The painting displayed a gradual transition from bright colors to more muted tones.
4. His gradual ascent to the top of the company was marked by hard work and dedication.
5. They experienced a gradual increase in sales over the past year, leading to higher profits.
6. The recovery from the illness was gradual, taking several weeks before she felt fully healthy again.
7. His understanding of the complex subject improved through gradual exposure to the material over time.
8. The team implemented a gradual change in their strategy to avoid overwhelming their players.
9. The gradual shift in the weather signaled the start of spring, with flowers beginning to bloom.
10. She noticed a gradual increase in her confidence as she practiced speaking in public more frequently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gradual>