

GRAFTING

Meaning: Grafting is a horticultural and surgical technique that involves joining parts of different plants or tissues to grow together, promoting desirable traits or repairing damaged areas.

1. Grafting is a common technique used in horticulture to propagate plants with desirable traits.
2. The surgeon explained how grafting can effectively repair damaged tissue and enhance healing.
3. In art, grafting may refer to the process of combining different styles to create a unique piece.
4. The scientist was researching the effects of grafting on tree growth and disease resistance.
5. Grafting is often employed in viticulture to improve the quality of grapevines and increase yields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grafting>