

GRAIP

Meaning: A graip is a farming tool with a long handle and several prongs, used for turning over soil or compost.

1. The farmer used a graip to turn the compost pile effectively.
2. She noticed the graip leaning against the barn after a long day's work.
3. With a swift motion, he shoved the graip into the hay, gathering it for the winter.
4. The old graip was rusted but still functional, a testament to years of labor.
5. During the harvest season, the graip became an essential tool for managing the fields.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/graip>