

GRAMOPHONE

Meaning: A gramophone is an early sound reproduction device that plays recorded music from a rotating disc, often referred to as a record.

1. The gramophone played a nostalgic tune that filled the room with warmth.
2. He discovered an old gramophone in the attic, covered in dust but still functional.
3. Her collection of records was complete, and she couldn't wait to showcase them on her antique gramophone.
4. Listening to the crackling sounds of the gramophone took him back to simpler times.
5. The gramophone, with its elegant horn, was a centerpiece at the vintage music exhibition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gramophone>