

GRANDILOQUENT

Meaning: Grandiloquent: characterized by lofty, extravagant, or pompous language or style, often to the point of being overly elaborate or verbose.

1. His grandiloquent speech impressed the audience, though many felt it was unnecessarily verbose.
2. The author's grandiloquent style often overshadowed the simple beauty of the story.
3. In an effort to impress his peers, he adopted a grandiloquent manner of speaking that seemed out of place.
4. She found his grandiloquent claims hard to believe, suspecting they were more about show than substance.
5. Despite the grandiloquent presentation, the project lacked the practical details necessary for implementation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grandiloquent>