

GRANDILOQUOUS

Meaning: Grandiloquent: characterized by lofty, extravagant, or pompous language and style, often to impress or persuade.

1. His grandiloquent speech, filled with elaborate metaphors, left the audience both impressed and bewildered.
2. The politician's grandiloquous promises during the campaign seemed more like poetic rhetoric than actionable plans.
3. She was known for her grandiloquent style of writing, often using complex vocabulary to convey simple ideas.
4. Despite his grandiloquent manner, he struggled to connect with the everyday concerns of his constituents.
5. At the dinner party, her grandiloquent anecdotes about her travels captivated everyone, though some found them a bit overwhelming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grandiloquous>