

GRANGERISM

Meaning: Grangerism is a movement that promotes the collective organization of farmers to advocate for their economic interests and influence agricultural policies.

1. Grangerism advocates for the collective organization of farmers to assert their interests.
2. The rise of Grangerism in the late 19th century significantly influenced agricultural policies.
3. Many historians argue that Grangerism played a crucial role in shaping modern agricultural cooperatives.
4. The principles of Grangerism emphasized education and cooperation among rural communities.
5. Grangerism often challenged the monopolistic practices of railroads and grain elevators during its peak.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/grangerism>